

Resources for Families with Grandparents Caring for young children

Explore quick guides covering the latest child care strategies and resources to help you support your children and grandchildren.

- Planning Tips for Sharing the Care: Learn what parents and grandparents should talk about before sharing the care.
- The Grandparent Guide: What's New? What's the Same?: A grandparent's guide to what's new and what has stayed the same when it comes to caring for babies and toddlers—including challenging behavior, safe sleep, mealtimes, and much more.
- If You Only Knew: A Tool for Grandparent Caregivers: Provides a way to think about “sharing the care” across generations and guidance for dialogue about the shared tasks of caregiving.
- Grandparents Who Care: Sharing the Care With Your Own Parents (Article)
- Watching and Wondering: How to Identify Challenges in Your Grandchild's Development (Article)
- On Your Lap, In Your Heart (Article)
- Share Your Family Traditions (Article)

Learn More: Grandparents as Caregivers

Hear from grandparents about their role as caregivers for their grandchildren and explore the latest research on grandparenting.

- Grandparent Films: Meet three remarkable families in which the grandparents provide regular childcare to their beloved grandkids.
- By the Numbers: Find out how grandparents perceive their role as caregiver for children aged 5 and under as well as the benefits and challenges.
- Building a Child's Team: What grandparents say about “sharing the care” with their grandkids’ parents.
- Joy and Commitment: What grandparents say about the joy of caring for grandkids.

The above is found at

<https://www.zerotothree.org/resources/2464-the-grand-connector-grandparent-resources#chapter-1617>

ZERO TO THREE works to ensure that babies and toddlers benefit from the early connections that are critical to their well-being and development.